

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ANITA B. CARR,

Plaintiff,

v.

LIBERTY LIFE ASSURANCE
COMPANY, et al.,

Defendants.

NO. C05-3190 TEH

ORDER RE: PLAINTIFF'S
CORRESPONDENCE

The Court is in receipt of two letters, dated October 27, 2008, and October 29, 2008, from Plaintiff Anita Carr. The October 27 letter refers to communications Ms. Carr had with her former attorney, and the Clerk shall therefore file this letter under seal to protect against inadvertent disclosure of information that may be subject to the attorney-client privilege. The October 29 letter contains no confidential or potentially privileged information, and the Clerk shall therefore file this letter in the public record.<sup>1</sup>

The Court is filing these letters, as it has filed Ms. Carr's previous letters to the Court, because the Court cannot engage in ex parte communications with the parties. This means that Ms. Carr cannot have private communications with the Court to the exclusion of Defendants' counsel.

Further communication from Ms. Carr to the Court prior to the December 15, 2008 case management conference does not appear to be necessary. However, if Ms. Carr wishes to communicate with the Court, she should do so by filing a document using the Court's <sup>1</sup>In her October 29 letter, Ms. Carr states that she is unavailable to appear on November 3. However, the Court has already continued the November 3 case management conference to December 15, 2008.
